

2nd June
4pm	Arrive Aberdeen Airport. Transfer to coach
6.30pm	Arrive at GLEN MOHR Hotel in Inverness
7.30pm	Dinner in Hotel followed by presentation from Lesley Riddoch giving a background of Gaelic and Skye
3rd June
8am	Depart Inverness on Coach. En route stop at Loch Ness and Eilean Donan Castle to stretch legs and admire the views.
11am	Aros Centre on Skye
	Presentation by Arthur Cormack about the very successful and award winning Feisean movement he founded - small, local music learning festivals where traditional instruments and song are taught through the medium of Gaelic - now all over Scotland and well beyond the original Gaelic native speaking area.
12.45pm	Lunch at Aros centre
1.30pm	Arthur will also speak as head of the Gaelic Board about funding, government policy, having to constantly justify funding for Gaelic and overcoming hostility from many non-Gaelic speaking Scots - He can also talk about Gaelic broadcasting policy, education etc and he'll bring a young colleague to talk about winning over young people
3pm	Talk by Cailean MacLean - accomplished photographer, nephew of famous Gaelic poet Sorley MacLean - on publishing in Gaelic. There are no Gaelic publishers on Skye but Cailean has had scores of books published with Gaelic and English commentary accompanying his brilliant photographs.
4pm	Shopping /look around in Portree if wanted
5pm	Depart for hotels Sligachan and Sconser Lodge
7pm	Dinner Sligachan Hotel
9pm	Gaelic Music event at the college (20 mins drive away)
4th June
9am	Depart Hotels
9.30	Arrive Talisker Distillery for tour (2 groups 9.45am and 10am)
11am	Tour of Skye
12 Noon	Lunch at Old School Restaurant
2pm	Arrive Gaelic College -- tour and talk by founders John Norman Macleod and Donald Angus - talking about popularity of courses, difficulty of attracting funding, finding quality Gaelic lecturers etc
4pm	Leave Gaelic college (Lesley Riddoch to say goodbye)
5.30	Arrive Inverness Palace Hotel
6.30ish	Dinner

5th June
am	Leave Inverness and return to Aberdeen Cophorne Hotel
pm	Dinner in Hotel
6th June
am	Conference facility at hotel 9am until noon, with tea/coffees pm	Return to Airport.